the MUNIO

To give people back the power of nature, the source from which we all originate but have lost in modern times. To generate warmth and light which emanates from candles with stories.

This was and still is the simple and honest mission with which Elina Cima created the Munio Candela studio and the first collection of candles in 2008. Following the rapid growth in global markets, both sisters Laura and Liene joined the studio which now is a steadily growing family business.

In Latin, Munio Candela means “the most spiritually powerful candle”. Every candle is carefully and lovingly made by hand using only 100% natural soy wax and fragrances.

Northern nature is captured in Munio Candela candles nurtured by Latvian master craftsmen.

Enjoy the naturally scented and organically sourced skincare products – soaps, body lotions, and body oils. They're delicately crafted by women and intended to enjoy by everyone. Including our planet. They're handcrafted in our studio and wrapped up in environmentally friendly packaging. Indulge and let our products bring back nature to your home.

Herbs and flowers from Latvian meadows and forests

Candle burns creating a tunnel
to illuminate the herbs

Soy wax rounds are made for room fragrance and decoration

Natural fragrance diffusers will give personality to any room or space around you

I have forgotten. After the long winter I have forgotten the smell of fresh spring rain and a country meadow in bloom. In the evening, I light a candle on the windowsill.

A whiff of lavender and heather in bloom, or marigolds picked right here in Latvia. With an almost inaudible click, my consciousness switches to summertime. Like every year, like magic.

Ashberries & bilberry leaves | Sturdy bilberry leaves and juicy, red ashberries eager to embrace the promises of autumn. It takes two to tango.
